“The art of teaching is the art of assisting discovery.”

— Mark Van Doren

This is why I teach music

...not because I expect you to major in music,
not because I expect you to play or sing all your life,
not so you can relax,
not so you can have fun,

but so you will be human,
so you will recognize beauty,
so you will be closer to an infinite beyond this world,
so you will have something to cling to,
so you will have more love, more compassion,
more gentleness, more good in short, more life.

Private Lessons

Private Lesson Policy

Private lessons are open to new and continuing students. For new students, registration begins with advisement in the student's area of interest followed by an instructor placement. All lesson arrangements for new and continuing students are made directly with their instructor. Private lessons are available on most instruments. Suzuki instruction is available for violin, viola, cello, guitar and piano.

Private lesson students, joining CCSM for the first time, will register for the full academic year and will have a four lesson consultation period. If a student chooses to withdraw prior to the 4th lesson taught, a full refund will be given minus the cost of the initial given lessons. It is expected that students will commit to weekly lessons for the remainder of the school year after the consultation period has concluded. There are no makeups or refunds for student missed lessons.

Full term enrollment is required and pro-rated based on week of entry. Tuition payments are due on the 1st of the month (for the forthcoming month), billed September–June. A one-time $20 student registration fee is applied to each new student account. Payments are considered late if not received by the 10th of the month. A $25 late fee will be automatically applied to the student's account for past due balances.

Sign up for Auto-Pay and avoid late fees!

TUITION RATES INCLUDE:

- 38 weeks of private music lessons (later start dates are pro-rated)
- Multiple performance opportunities during the academic year, including monthly recitals, festivals, community events, competitions and ensemble programs
- Access to master classes with renowned visiting artists
- High-quality video and audio recording access

Master Private Lessons

Master Teachers are available to instruct students of any age and ability who demonstrate a commitment to serious music study. The program is open to everyone, but also includes students who are considering career paths in the world of music or for those desiring to reach artist-level capacity on their voice or instrument. Master teachers are our most highly qualified instructors and possess at least a Master of Arts degree in music (or comparable certification and/or experience teaching at CCSM), widespread performing experience at the artist level, and very strong pedagogical skills.

Master Private lessons may be taken in 30, 45, or 60 minute increments and enable students to progress at a highly motivated pace. It gives the opportunity for advanced students to prepare for performances, auditions and competitions. Students explore varied repertoire and are placed in demanding arenas to accelerate their study of music.

CCSM Collaborative Performance – Virtual Orchestra & Choir The Water is Wide (O Waly, Waly)

Premiered online on July 19, 2020

<https://youtu.be/obf5i4w1FAU>

O Waly, Waly (The Water is Wide) is a British folk song symbolic of caring for one another and hope for the future. The water is wide and may seem impossible to cross, however, in times of difficulty, we can come together as a community and persevere over what we cannot overcome alone.

This virtual orchestra with CCSM students and faculty features a 56-piece string section (violin, viola, cello, and bass), 49 pianos performing, and is led by conductor and CCSM Executive Director, Matthew Keating.

There are a total of 22 faculty participants in this first-time-ever CCSM virtual-orchestra production.

Included in the ensemble are special parts for choir, bagpipes, handbells, harp, percussion, guitar, organ, and recorder.

“There is music in every child. The teacher’s job is to find it and nurture it.”

— Francis Clark

WHAT IS ORFF SCHULWERK?

Building Musicianship and More...In Every Learner

Releasing creativity that extends far beyond the music classroom, Carl Orff and Gunild Keetman conceived an approach to building musicianship in every learner through the integration of music, movement, speech, and drama.

A Teaching Model for Optimal Learning

In Orff Schulwerk classrooms, children begin with what they do instinctively: play! Imitation, experimentation, and personal expression occur naturally as students become confident, life-long musicians and creative problem solvers. The Orff approach to teaching is a model for optimal learning in 21st Century classrooms.

For more information about Orff Schulwerk visit: <https://aosa.org>.

Ensembles - Chamber Music

CHAMBER MUSIC ENSEMBLES

Chamber music is a form of classical music composed for a small group of instruments—traditionally a group that could fit in a palace chamber or large room. Most broadly, it includes any music performed by a small number of performers, with one performer to a part.

Because of its intimate nature, chamber music has been described as “the music of friends”. Playing chamber music requires special skills, both musical and social, that differ from the skills required for playing solo or symphonic works. Chamber music groups at CCSM are created and coordinated based on the number, instrumentation, and level of interested participants. Rehearsal times are based on the availability of students and rehearsal space. On average, rehearsals and lessons occur one time per week for approximately one hour throughout the school year. Interested students may apply by contacting the Executive Director, Matthew Keating, directly via email at mkeating@claremontmusic.org. Concurrent enrollment in private lessons is required.

Note: Class dates and times are determined by the Executive Director or the instructor; Inquire accordingly.

KEYBOARD ENSEMBLE/THEORY WORKSHOPS

Open to students who are currently taking private piano lessons (Suzuki or Traditional) at CCSM. All piano students are strongly encouraged to enroll, but are not required to do so. Lessons are coordinated with the student's private instructor. Workshops are held in the Keyboard Lab where the elements of music and reading skills are practiced through games and activities. Students learn to play together following a steady beat. Workshops meet national standards for music education in theory, music appreciation, history, and composition. Performance Workshops are held in the Huff Recital Hall. This course is contingent upon the ability to meet in person on the CCSM campus.

Suzuki - String Program

SUZUKI STRINGS PRE-TWINKLERS & TWINKLERS

AGES 3 - 7 + PARENT

The Suzuki Violin & Viola Program is designed for students ages 3-7 years. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will be observing classes and private lessons virtually. This means the classes and lessons will occur through computer platforms such as Zoom and FaceTime. Students that have an older sibling (or parent that knows how to play the violin or viola) can begin lessons with permission from Ms. Tajima. Because of the importance of developing good habits from the very beginning, students who have NO musical experience can inquire, but parents and beginning students will not be able to begin until the pandemic is under control and we can meet in person.

Dr. Shin'ichi Suzuki developed this incredibly exciting approach to music education and the development of essential skills we need to develop into human beings that have the ability to problem solve and enjoy doing it! He observed that young children, from birth, had the capability to learn and observe from a very young age! Using imitative skills, we learn by listening to speech patterns which surround us. We don't learn by someone putting a book in front of us and telling us to "read"! Being read to, spoken to, and hearing music develops our cognitive skills to a very high degree. When lessons begin, by using imitation, we learn how to move and feel the music! Dr. Suzuki has organized repertoire that students learn into 10 books, and each piece introduces a technique that needs to be mastered before learning other songs. By having students review works they have learned, more advanced bowing and fingerings can be introduced which helps students to adapt to new circumstances. They are to listen to and familiarize themselves with the pieces on a CD, which also helps teach a sense of musicality in each work. The parent plays a very important role as "home teacher," guiding practices and at the lesson as "secretary".

This class is a year-long commitment in conjunction with private lessons.

WATCH US GROW! COMBINED REPERTOIRE CLASS

The Suzuki String Workshops are an essential part of this approach. Students learn valuable skills which will enhance their playing ability. Over the course of the school year, there are 11 repertoire classes wherein students that know how to play the "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star Variations and Theme" are combined with more advanced students in Book 1 & 2. This exposes the students to literature they will be learning, and they will participate in a game-like atmosphere while learning! Attendance is important for this class, as well as others. Students learn how to play well with others even as the classes meet virtually for as long as is necessary. Enrollment in concurrent private lessons is required for workshop participation. This class is a year-long commitment in conjunction with private lessons.

STRING THEORY, EAR TRAINING, MASTERCLASS: STEM - PROGRAM A

The STEM Program is designed to give the advancing student (Intermediate level and up) the knowledge necessary to become competent performers, while being able to spend more time learning about theory, music history, and ear training. The A Session consists of students around CM Level 5-8 (or equivalent repertoire levels, ages 13/14-17 years old). We will cover two topics almost every session. There is homework that needs to be completed between sessions. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will meet virtually. There will be sessions wherein you will perform for others and be critiqued on your performance. This is very valuable! I hope we will be able to meet in person sometime this year, and if we do, we can plan to work with an accompanist. The STEM A class meets on alternating weeks from STEM B classes. If we return to meeting in person, there may be a change for the STEM B classes, but most likely not for STEM A classes. If there are conflicts for you, please let me know ASAP.

I hope we will be able to meet in person sometime this year, and if we do, we can plan to work with an accompanist. The STEM "E" will be translated to "ear training" until we can meet together and play "ensemble" work (unless you really insist on doing "ensemble" work, and enjoyed learning about how to read a score and know where parts lead!) We can always learn more, and that makes truly incredible ensemble players. If and when we can meet in person, we will adjust the class and schedule accordingly. STRING THEORY, EAR TRAINING, MASTERCLASS: STEM - PROGRAM C

The STEM Program is for advancing violinists. In this 10-session program, students will learn about more advanced theory (scales, arpeggios, major & minor keys, as well as key signatures and intervals), ear training, and projection (knowing how to present yourselves on stage for the optimum results). Two topics will be covered almost every session, and there will be homework that students will need to complete between sessions. So be sure to work very diligently and if you don't understand something, do not be bashful about telling me! Please remember that there are no "stupid questions"... ALL QUESTIONS HAVE VALUE! This is how everyone learns: by asking questions and observing others. In the masterclass situation, students will have the opportunity to practice performing in front of others, and each one of us will be able to say what was good and what could have been better. We will learn by critiquing others. It's an excellent tool and you'll learn so much! This STEM C group is between 10-12 year olds and all who are at CM Level 3.
